We offer the following information to assure you that we are concerned about and respect your privacy. When you are sending a donation to Global Servants or simply visiting our website, Global Servants will never sell, lease or rent your confidential information. The list of people who receive mailings from Global Servants is never shared or sold with any other entity. (However, if it is necessary, we will share information for legal reasons.) Global Servants does not collect personal information without your knowledge including during your visit to our website. However, Global Servants does at times ask that you provide us with personal information while online. The type of information we collect typically, but not always, corresponds directly with the service you request. For instance, if you make donations, purchase ministry materials, register for events or request information, you will supply us with your name and address and sometimes e-mail address. Global Servants does not sell, lease or rent your confidential information. However, we may need to disclose personal information as required by law, such as a law, regulation, court order, subpoena, search warrant, in the course of a legal proceeding or in response to a law enforcement agency request, to enforce our Terms of Service, or site rules or to protect the safety and security of our visitors and our site.

Website Security

Our Website's ecommerce system uses SSL encryption to protect sensitive data transmissions from your computer to our on-line store website. Global Servants is PCI (payment card industry) compliant as required by the credit card companies. You are able to see when the SSL encryption is active either by the "padlock" icon at the bottom of your browser's window or by a blue line around the window. In certain areas, password protection is used to protect your privacy and security.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION ABOUT OUR WEBSITE:

Cookies

A small piece of data that a website can store on your system is referred to as a "cookie." Cookies are often used to enhance your online experience. Many browsers recognize when a cookie has been sent to your computer and will give you the option to refuse or allow it. Within the Global Servants web presence, we use two different cookies. Below are details regarding how these two cookies are used by our website. Please be aware that we do not use cookies to track a user's navigation through our Website.

Account Registration

When you establish a “log-in” on our donations page, you provide us certain information that allows us to complete your transaction (although store purchases may be completed without establishing an account). This information is used to create a unique account in our “store”. Following account registration, a "cookie" is used to automatically identify you as a registered user when you log in (you have the option of declining this account registration and cookie when you arrive at our online store page.)

Shopping Cart Identification

The Shopping Cart Identification "cookie" allows our store server to connect you to your active shopping cart. This cookie is set to expire a short time after you exit your current browser session. Reconnecting to the store quickly, after logging off, may cause your shopping cart to remain active and it should be emptied if so desired.
